

PC ANNA INGRAM 1560

Hello all,

I hope you are all enjoying the breaks in cold weather and making the most of those snippets of spring sunshine.

As some may already know, this week will be my last as Uppingham's local beat officer as I will be hanging up my police uniform for good. I want to take this opportunity to say what an absolute privilege the last two years have been to serve the people of this magnificent town. I have met some wonderful people during my time here and some that I will stay in contact with life after the police.

Policing Uppingham hasn't been without its challenges, but the unique community spirit this town upholds has been key to ensuring justice was served on those that had committed offences (alongside the crystal-clear CCTV and fabulous partnership working with the RCC community safety team)

I remember walking along the high street one afternoon last year and numerous shop owners were on alert standing at the doorways of their businesses. It became apparent that some possible shoplifters were on the prowl, and the businesses had contacted one another to share this information.

I located the individuals suspected who were not local to Uppingham and made them fully aware that their presence was known in the Town, and that pretty much everyone including myself were watching them. They left rather swiftly.

I never encountered them again.

This is what I love about Uppingham!

I will be in Uppingham until this Friday 31st, so hopefully I will get to see those that I haven't yet got to say farewell to this week.

PCSO Andy Wylie will still be here alongside your new beat officer so if you see them out and about, do stop and introduce yourself as they will be eager to know who's who.

Thank you again to the wonderful people of Uppingham. 😊

NEIGHBOURHOOD LINK

We continue to encourage local residents to have their say through Neighborhood Link surveys and keep all residents that have signed up to this aware of issues happening in Rutland.

The banner features the text 'Neighbourhood Link' in large white font, with 'Police Community Messaging Service' below it. To the right is the Leicestershire Police crest and logo with the tagline 'Protecting our communities'. Below this is a photograph of a police officer wearing a blue 'POLICE COMMUNITY SUPPORT OFFICER' badge with the number '6154' and the name 'KAPIM B ALADI'. At the bottom, it says 'Receive the latest news, updates and events information direct from the police' and 'REGISTER TODAY www.neighbourhoodlink.co.uk'.

BEAT SURGERY/EVENTS

PCSO 6613 Wylie will be holding beat surgeries at Uppingham Methodist Church and the library. The next one will be 04/04/23 at the library.

If you would like to speak to Andy about any Policing issues or concerns, please pop in and join him.

BEAT PRIORITIES

Speeding.

Through consultation with our community we have identified that Speeding vehicles on Rutland roads is a priority our communities want us to address, specifically the lack of adherence to 30mph zones.

Anti-Social Behavior.

Through consultation with our community we have highlighted the priority of Anti-Social behavior that residents are concerned about.

Drug using/ Drug dealing

Through consultation with our communities, we have highlighted that drug taking and dealing are priorities to be addressed, and we are working hard to gather intelligence on these issues to enable us to take positive action.
